

Privacy Statement For The Worldwide Golf Society Corporation

The Worldwide Golf Society is committed to protecting your privacy when you use the website and any on-line, services ("Services"). In this policy we explain how and why we collect your information, what we do with it and what controls you have over our use of it.

From time to time, we add or change functions, features or products to our Web Sites or add or change Services. This, and our commitment to protecting the privacy of your personal information, may result in periodic changes to this Privacy Policy. As a result, please remember to refer back to this Privacy Policy regularly to review any amendments.

Any questions regarding our Privacy Policy should be directed to contact at The Worldwide Golf Society at info@worldwidegolfociety.com

Your acceptance of these Privacy Statement terms

By using any of the sites and pages within our web site network ("Web Sites") or our Services, you unconditionally agree to be bound by this Privacy Policy.

What data do we collect and how do we use it?

The Worldwide Golf Society collects and processes information about you in order to:

- (i) identify you each time you visit the Web Site or wish to have a Service provided;
- (ii) process orders or applications submitted by you;
- (iii) improve our Services and Web Sites
- (iv) send you information we think you may find useful, including information about new The Worldwide Golf Society products and services only.

You may be asked, either when you register with us, or at other times, for information about yourself, such as your name, e-mail address, postal address.

You are under no obligation to provide this information, but if you don't then we may not be able to provide you with certain services or personalise your experience and tailor our Services for you.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are pieces of information that a Web Site transfers to your hard drive to store and sometimes track information about you. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but if you prefer, you can change your browser to prevent that. However, you may not be able to take full advantage of a Web Site if you do so. Cookies are specific to the server that created them and cannot be accessed by other servers, which means they cannot be used to track your movements around the web. Although they do identify a user's computer, cookies do not personally identify customers or passwords. Credit card information is not stored in cookies.

We use cookies for the following reasons:

To identify who you are and to give you access your Worldwide Golf Society account information.

we use "session cookies" that are active only when members are logged in the "members area".

With whom is the information shared?

The Worldwide Golf Society will not share, sell or rent your personal information to third parties

The Worldwide Golf Society may disclose personal information if required to do so by law or if it believes that such action is necessary to protect and defend the rights, property or personal safety of The Worldwide Golf Society and its Web Sites, visitors to the Web Sites and customers of our Services.

Our Web Site contains links to the sites of third parties. When you visit these sites, we suggest that you read their privacy policies. The Worldwide Golf Society is not responsible for the privacy policies or the content of such sites.

We will NOT sell or rent your personal information to a third party.

Security

The Worldwide Golf Society places a great importance on the security of all information associated with our customers. We have security measures in place to attempt to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of customer data under our control. For example, our security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary and only authorised personnel have access to user information. With regard to our Web Sites, we use secure server software (SSL) to encrypt financial information you input before it is sent to us. While we cannot ensure or guarantee that loss, misuse or alteration of data will not occur, we use our best efforts to prevent this.
